'We Will Have Our Country Back!'

Throughout this issue of Broadsword our readers will see the slogan 'We Will Have Our Country Back'. This must become the war cry of all British National Socialists and British Nationalists over the coming years. This must be the driving force behind all our campaigns and literature. The British people were never asked whether or not they wanted their country to be the reception point for mass immigration from Third World countries. The British people were never asked whether or not they wanted Britain to be changed into a multi-racial, multi-cultural society. The British people have been forced to accept the presence of 'ethnic minority' communities in their towns and cities. Protest by the British people against the presence of non-White communities has been silenced by draconian Race Relations laws. The time has come for a revolution in thought in Britain, National Socialism will lead that revolution in thought. The thought that despite all the lies and mind bending propaganda from the multi-racialists, the clock can be turned back, Britain can reverse the situation if it has the will. We can take our country back and live again in a society that is truly British. The time has come for the 'guests' to leave, they have overstayed their welcome and

THE VOICE OF NATIONAL SOCIALIST RESISTANCE

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK!

As the great multi-cultural experiment begins to break down

Our people have become marginalized, and in some towns and cities, dispossessed.

There is 'ethnic-cleansing' in districts dominated by concentrations of a particular non-white ethnic group and the remaining indigenous White British are either squeezed or forced out. In some localities they are squeezed out by the lack of shops and services which cater for them, where they are isolated because their neighbours speak little or no English and have nothing in common with them, they cannot identify with their customs or their culture.

In other areas they are forced out by violence and intimidation, they are no longer welcome in their old neighbourhoods because they no longer belong there.

On a recent BBC TV documentary an undercover reporter straying into a Bengali dominated district of the East End of London was confronted by Asian teenagers who told him that in this neighbourhood there were "No English here" and "this is Bengali territory".

Elsewhere in this issue of Broadword the frightening takeover of major British cities by non-British ethnic groups is discussed and the prospects for the British are grim unless our people start to fight back. As National Socialists we must put the fight back into our people, show them that there are still those with the spirit and determination not to accept the situation our country is in. Our people can be made to realise that it is not too late to act and with the will to win the British can not only regain their pride as a nation but can take their streets, their neighbourhoods, their towns and eventually their country back.

WE must capitalise on this sense of loss amongst the British people, we can build up our strength on the streets from this growing army of the disillusioned and disaffected.

It will not be easy to tear the youth of our country out of the materialistic apathy into which so many have sunk. Brainwashed by multi-media popular culture into accepting a multi-racial society. Conned into thinking that Black ghetto culture, its music, its language, its clothing and graffiti are worthwhile icons for young White people to emulate. Our 'thirty and forty somethings' have been fooled as a generation into believing that to be a 'racist' is wrong. 'Racist' is a term dreamt up by a left-wing academic to denounce those White people who are actually proud of their racial heritage and want to preserve it. Liberal values and leftist political correctness now dominate the thinking of Britain's adult population and the time has come for National Socialism to over turn those corrupting influences.

The more that the ordinary working-class British have their faces rubbed into the dirt by the system and by the advances and demands of the 'ethnic minorities', the more aggrieved they will become and the more readily they will see how they have been lied to by the established political parties and their politically correct media partners. The angrier the ordinary British become, the more readily they will accept our radical solutions to our countries problems.

British Movement will not compromise on its radical and ruthless programme for a British awakening. What we have said we will do, we will do. The British are like a coiled spring, you can only push a spring down so far, then it will take the pressure no longer and springs back to its former position. So it must be for the White British.

National Socialism is the ideology which can and will provide the energy to unleash that coiled spring and force the pace of politics away from the socialist experiment in multi-culturalism.

The National Socialist revolution in Britain will be a triumph of National Will.

We Will Have Our Country Back!

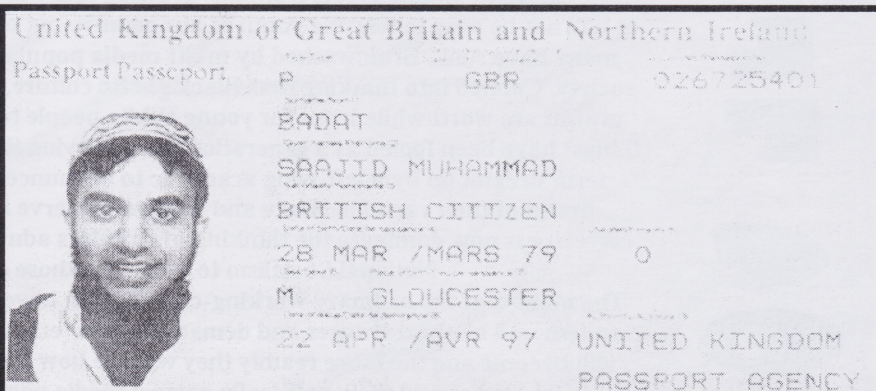

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

A BRITISH FOLK TRADITION UNDER ATTACK BY RACIAL EQUALITY FANATICS

Cornish Folk Festival Filmed by Police Surveillance Units as Cornwall Racial Equality Council Demand Prosecution of Centuries Old Tradition.

Every year in the Cornish fishing town of Padstow local people hold traditional 'Darkie Days' celebrations to raise money for charity. The colourful processions of blackened faced 'guisers' and musicians take to the streets on Boxing Day and New Years Day as they have done for over 150 years. However in December 2004 the 'guisers' and festival goers found themselves being filmed by as many as four police video vans from the Devon and Cornwall Police. The intention of the police is to submit the video footage of the festival to the Crown Prosecution Service for possible prosecution under the Race Relations Act. The police mounted the expensive operation at the bidding of the Truro based Cornwall Racial Equality Council, who objected to the tradition of 'guisers' blackening their faces as racially offensive. No matter that in England and Scotland 'Guising', that is dressing up in traditional costumes and blackening the face goes back to medieval times and rural folk customs. Nothing to do with race. In the English countryside troops of Morris Dancers often blackened their faces as part of the ritual dances and in Scotland children would blacken their faces as part of 'guising' at New Year's Eve. Again nothing to do with race. Amazingly the Devon and Cornwall Police have always refused requests from Padstow Town Council for extra officers for crowd and traffic control during the 'Darkie Day' festivals on grounds of cost. But surprise, surprise, there was no problem providing extra officers and four video surveillance vans when the Racial Equality Council demanded action.

This is the Madness of a Government Which is Determined to Make Britain a Multi-Cultural Society. Al Qaida recruit Saajid Badat is the 'model' Asian immigrant. A British Pakistani—made British by a piece of paper. His passport describes him as a "British Citizen". British born, British educated, but a dedicated Islamic fanatic. The reality of the situation is that despite everything that the multi-culturalists did for him, he still had nothing in common with the real British people or the true British culture he turned against and was prepared to wage 'holy war' against.

This is the reality of Multi-Racial Madness, Saajid Badat, convicted at the Old Bailey of being an Al Qaida trained terrorist. Born in England to immigrant Pakistani parents in Gloucester. Educated in the British state school system, graduated from a British university. Studied Islam in India and Pakistan. Enrolled at an Islamic college in Blackburn Lancashire. Trained in explosives and guerrilla warfare at Al Quaida camps in Pakistan and Afghanistan. Returned to UK in December 2001 as part of a plot to bomb a flight from Amsterdam to the USA, but Badat lost his nerve. Arrested in Gloucester in November 2003, convicted February 2005.

THE FINAL OUTCOME OF A RACIALLY MIXED SOCIETY

Peter Bryan, who killed his friend and ate his brains - Bryan is a paranoid, schizophrenic multiple killer.

Race Hate Murder in Glasgow

Despite all their attempts at playing down the case and covering-up the details of the killing, the story of the killing of 15 years old Glaswegian teenager Kriss Donald finally came to court in November 2004.

In sharp contrast to the kind of blanket media coverage given to the murder of blacks or Asians by White 'racists', this race hate trial was relegated to local coverage virtually from the beginning.

The story hit the national headlines in March 2004 because of its violent nature, a 15 year old lad had been snatched from the streets of Glasgow by a car full of men, his mutilated body was later found dumped on waste land, covered in stab wounds. However, as soon as it became clear that Kriss Donald had been abducted and murdered by a gang of Asian men and that the motive was probably racial, then the shutters came down and an officially sponsored smokescreen went into action.

The media focussed on a high-profile response of 'community solidarity' by Glasgow's immigrant community leaders, terrified of a White backlash.

The case finally came before the High Court in Glasgow in November 2004, and the media outside Scotland kept a very low profile on the case, in the 'interests of racial harmony' and 'good community relations'. When Daanish Zahid was found guilty of the murder and his accomplices guilty of abducting Kriss Donald, their race hatred motives were played down and the disappearance of other guilty men largely ignored.

The Scottish newspapers were less interested in the hatred of White people that the murder gang displayed and were more focussed on objecting to the presence of White political activists in the public gallery of the court. In spite of the facts of the trial the press accused observers from the BNP and assorted NS and White Power organisations as being there to stir up trouble. Desperate to keep some of the details of the case out of the hands of the so-called "Far-Right", the Defence Lawyers for the killers convinced the police to clear the public gallery of most of the known NS and Nationalist activists. Their removal from the court room gained more press space and comment than the killer's guilty verdict.

MUSLIM VILLAGE TO BE BUILT IN THE WEST MIDLANDS

For years the Race Relations industry has bombarded the British public with its multi-racial/multi-cultural/ ethnic diversity propaganda.

A core message aimed at coercing the native British to accept the never ending waves of non-Whites into our country has been the slogan "Here to Live, Here to Stay". Now the latest venture aimed at ensuring that these communities, that the race-mixers so often assure us are not a threat to 'Our British-ness' but bring an injection of colour and 'diversity' to 'enrich' our apparently stagnant British culture, is a 'Muslim village'.

Dudley Muslim Association has unveiled plans to create a self-contained Muslim village in the West Midlands. The community will be built around a £15 million mosque and community centre (built with donations from wealthy Muslim businessmen across the world) Originally this separatist project was to have been funded entirely by private donations, but as in all things multi-cultural, British tax-payers money is being channelled into the Islamic project.

An initial grant of £150,000 has been awarded by the so-called Dudley Community Partnership, as part of the government backed Pride of Dudley Project. Unbelievably the plans intend for the government grant to be used to pay for staff at Jinna Hall, the centre of the project, where over a two year period the paid staff will work on finance raising and applying for other government grants to fund the Muslim village project.

Broadsword says: - Here is yet another example of minority communities wanting to be in Britain, taking advantage of being here, taking advantage of all our system, our taxes and economy has to offer. Paying lip-service to being 'British'. But in reality want to remain apart from the real British and our culture.

BRITISH JUSTICE?

March 2005 -

Illegal immigrant Aaron Chisango killed 12 year old Jamie Mason in a drunk driving incident and got just 8 weeks in prison.

Chisango, a Zambian national had been refused permission to stay in Britain four times and after the case could not be deported because he had applied for a judicial review of his immigration refusal.

When Chisango killed Jamie Mason, he was driving a car without a driving licence, had no insurance, and was 4 times over the legal limit for alcohol after drinking a litre of whisky before getting in the car.

Unbelievably Aaron Chisango was only jailed for 8 weeks by Wolverhampton magistrates after a charge of death by careless driving was dropped through lack of evidence!

FRENCH ACADEMIC SPEAKS OUT AGAINST THE HOLOCAUST

March 1st 2005:- Bruno Gollnisch a lecturer in Law at the University of Lyons has appeared before a faculty disciplinary committee following a statement he made in October 2004, questioning the use of 'gas chambers' in German concentration camps during the Second World War.

Monsieur Gollnisch has received political support from the leader of the Front Nationale, Jean Marie Le Pen. Predictably there has been an outcry from the usual quarters about the fact that Bruno Gollnisch has dared to question one of the fundamental principles of the 'Shoah'.

FRANCE

The French Government has declared its intentions to outlaw all Nationalist Socialist, ultra-Nationalist and White supremacist organisations, everything on the so-called 'extreme-right' except the Front Nationale. French Interior Minister Dominique de Villepin told French TV reporters that in February 2005 moves would begin to break up those groups and organisations, "whose common traits are incitement to hatred and the recourse to violence." The Interior Minister said he would invoke a law passed in 1936 that allows the President of the Republic to legally dissolve "private militias and combat groups" a law originally used in the late 1930's to outlaw French NS and Fascist organisations. The last time this law was used was in 2002 to ban the organisation 'Unite Radicale' after a UR supporter Maxime Brunerie fired a shot at Jacques Chirac during the Bastille Day parade through Paris.

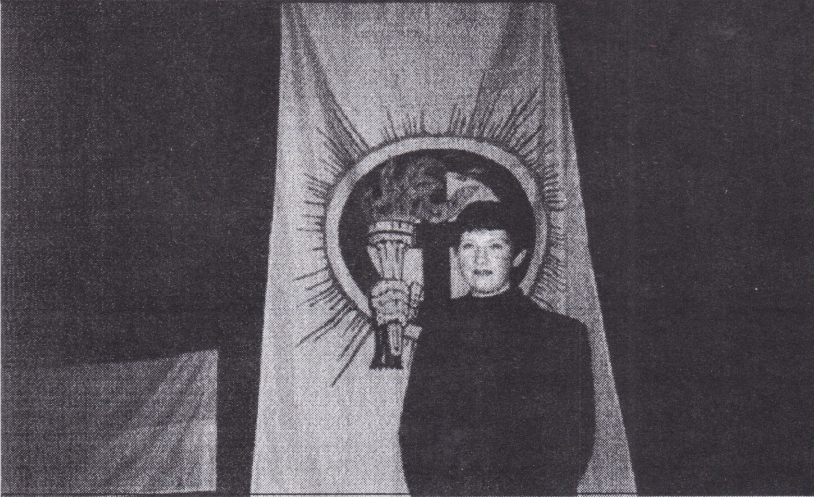

Minister De Villepin stated that, "Only those groups with values compatible with the republic will remain." Obviously the French Government is reacting to the increasing levels of racial tension across France by striking directly at those political forces which are totally opposed to a multi-racial society in France. Not surprisingly the French anti-racism organisation 'SOS Racisme' is delighted that the government is doing their dirty work for them.

Broadsword can only hope that the British state apparatus of Tony Blair's Labour Party does not decide to borrow this type of legislation from their Euro-friends in Paris.

Broadsword also hopes that our comrades in France will not be deterred by this particular set-back and will dig in for an underground struggle.

Goes From Strength to Strength
In the 1920's and 1930's the strength of German Nationalism was counted in the number of 'volkish' and patriotic organisations operating across Germany. Despite the repressive and anti-nationalist nature of the Bundesrepublik, it is heartening to see the revival of 'volkish' and Nationalist groups across Germany again. Two such groups are Heimattreue Deutsche Jugend a nationalist youth organisation, and the Gemeinschaft Deutscher Frauen a patriotic women's Organisation.

SHIRES AWAKE!

Britain's Multi- Cultural Cities Are They A Lost Cause ?

Why Shires Awake?

In blunt terms the Shires hold the least racially polluted populations in Britain and within the rural towns and villages there remains a vestige of national pride and patriotism untainted by political correctness and the leftist/liberal cult of multi-racialism and ethnic diversity.

British Movement believes that the revival of our Folk and our Nation lies within the Shire counties and Market towns of England and Wales, the Welsh having the edge in their sense of national identity and language.

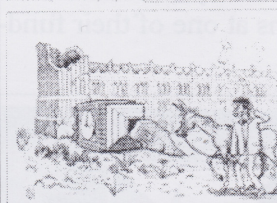

Of the four nations which make up Great Britain, it is England that has suffered the most from the onslaught of multi-culturalism. It is in England's major cities that the greatest damage has been done and the colonisation of our country by thousands of non-whites and other non-Aryans is centred in the great conurbations of the North and the Midlands. London of course is an outstanding example of multi-culturalism run riot. In London the White British will become a minority by the year 2010, and notoriously Leicester is set to become the first British city where the White British will be the ethnic minority. A sad indictment on the city that is the heart of a great rural shire, where many of its original population have fled to surrounding towns. The situation in Scotland and Northern Ireland is different in so much as both those territories have stronger 'folkish' roots and traditions with an underlying vein of inherent nationalism and a healthy distrust of Westminster based government. However, the relatively 'undamaged' nature of Scotland and Ulster should not be taken for granted as Glasgow and other towns and cities in Scotland's Central Belt are seeing a rising tide of immigration and settlement. Unfortunately those dark tentacles of colonisation have reached north to such unlikely centres as Aberdeen, spurred on BNSM (British Movement) propaganda badge from the late 1980's which first used the slogan "Shires Awake". The concept remains just as valid today and has even greater relevance to the growing political and ideological struggle in Britain.

ANNOUNCEMENT LONDON HAS FALLEN

Britain's capital city is now almost completely occupied by alien hordes of Asiatic and Negroes. In the White Areas (now known as the West and the East), there is evidence of the overwhelming numbers of the invaders. These forces of occupation have destroyed Britain and are now able to vote. These British who have fled are captured in a cage. The nation's political centre is obliterated with the invaders, and already, as we have seen, in Parliament that makes it a criminal offence for Britons to oppose the colonisers in any manner. Government owned prisons are overflowing with prisoners.

gangs in favour of the invaders whilst making a small &c. to ensure their propaganda. All public halls in the city have been closed to British's patrons but allowed to criminals and communists.

The time for the large scale invasion is at hand with the invading government and are invading White Britain as 'white' and 'black' and are not stopping short of lying and stealing. Violence leading to the situation in London and elsewhere and violent attacks on patriots and police also are increasing. The government seem likely to deal with the violent elements and a little further extension of emergency powers. The government's actions are continuing to present the leader of an organisation called the British Movement for a further a while. "What Did You Do During The Invasion Days?"

The BRITISH MOVEMENT is a legal political party consisting solely of British patriots. It is a quickly growing organisation, and therefore attacks by the press and other collaborators. Thinking British, loyal to their country and people are quickly realising that BRITISH MOVEMENT is putting Britain before colonisers and communists and are demanding the nation by joining the MOVEMENT.

The MOVEMENT is already making plans to re-educate colonisers, reduce political violence and arrest collaborators. Alien takeover of other cities is imminent but will be assisted by more and more people object collaboration and join and fight with.

BRITISH MOVEMENT

If you are British, patriotic and wish to know more then send a 10p stamp to The Secretary, British Movement, 2 Priests Close, Bellingham, Newcastle, NE11 0JY.

BRITISH MOVEMENT propaganda leaflet from the late 1970's which forecasts the decline of London as a British city and gloomily predicts its descent into a Third World melting pot where the achievements and culture of the native British are a forgotten memory.

by government inspired dispersal programmes for asylum-seekers and refugees. Recent events in Ulster have shown that in the wake of the so-called Good Friday Agreement, increasing numbers of Asians, Orientals and Africans are finding their way into the towns and cities of the province, no longer kept at bay by the fear of terrorist activity.

It is to the Shire Counties we must look to find the people who will spearhead our national re-awakening. In the British countryside are many of our folk who took part in the periods of 'White Flight' from the urban centres in the 1960's and 1970's. People who saw the decline of their neighbourhoods and the influx of immigrants and moved out to greener pastures. It is no accident that so many towns and villages along the English/Welsh border are dominated by 'incomers' from the West Midlands and Merseyside, keen to avoid having foreigners as neighbours.

In focussing on the Shires to build up support for the broader Nationalist cause and for National Socialism in particular does not mean that we should abandon the residual British populations of the cities. As National Socialists we offer a political and cultural lifeline to our beleaguered folk who are hanging on in the cosmopolitan mayhem of the cities. At some future time they will provide the springboard for a return to the streets of the major urban centres. The task is enormous but not impossible, as National Socialists we look forward to a time when the slogan "Shires Awake" is replaced by "Britain Awake", the job of the shires being done.

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK!

BROADSWORD'S CAMPAIGN

The Corruption and Degeneracy Which Has Become the Hallmark of Modern Materialistic Britain is Best Illustrated by the Leniency Our Legal System Shows Towards Hard Drugs and Sex Offenders. The British Justice System Has Gone Soft and Finds Excuses For the Worst Elements in Our Society. Broadsword Demands an End to the Kid-Gloves Treatment and a Return to the Days of Hard Labour and Long Sentences for the Trash in the Penal System.

Whenever British Movement puts out a leaflet or poster demanding tougher, harsher penalties for paedophiles or drug dealers, there is always some socialist or liberal ready to bleat, that our policies are "inhuman" or "extremist" or "a serious threat to civil liberties and human rights". Always the liberals and the leftists are on the side of the criminals, never the victims. Is this an exaggeration? Well consider this.....Human Rights legislation has placed a legal obligation on the Police to protect drug traffickers, robbers, drug pushers and pimps from their own kind. The police now have a legal "duty of care" to protect anyone at risk of harm and apparently that includes protecting rival members of drug or prostitution gangs from each other! The National Crime Squad has recently been quoted as saying that it has increased operations "to protect the safety of criminals in violent struggles with rival gangs". The European Court of Human Rights has awarded damages against the Metropolitan Police for failure to prevent an attack on members of a London based Turkish criminal gang. Is this British justice?

BRITISH MOVEMENT CAMPAIGN AGAINST PAEDOPHILES

Why are these perverts and sexual degenerates treated so lightly by the courts?

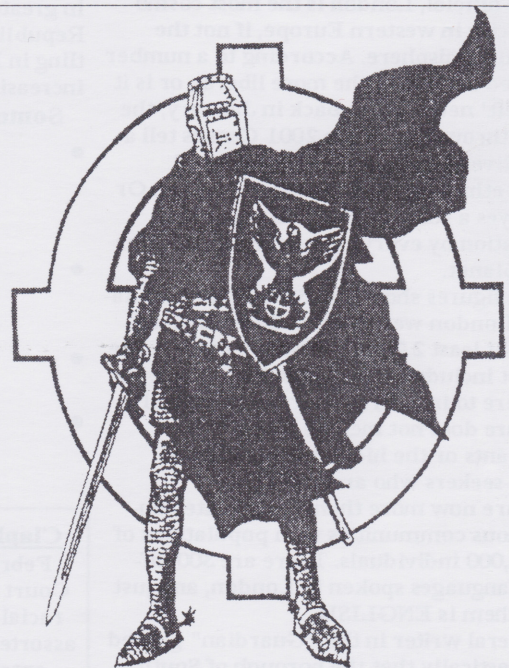

British Movement demands harsher penalties for child-sex offenders and criminal sexual deviants.

Above:

Convicted pervert William Fraser, age 53, the former Deputy Head teacher of Porthlethen Academy, Aberdeen. In January 2005 Fraser admitted to possessing over 3,000 indecent images of children on his computer. The images depicted children, mostly boys, engaged in sexual acts with other children and with adults, some of those in the pictures were as young as five years old. Fraser admitted to the court that "His liking for young males as being of a sexual attraction or sexual orientation."

Broadsword demands the harshest of penalties for perverts like William Fraser.

National Socialism is the guardian of Britain's traditional moral standards. British Movement calls for a crusade against moral degeneracy. The time has come to break the grip of the illegal drugs trade in Britain. Time to crack down on the crack-dealers, time to push out the pushers, and time to eradicate the trade in heroin and cocaine.

If the pushers and dealers are removed from Britain's streets, then the associated crimes of burglary, muggings and prostitution, will go too. Remove the suppliers and the problem will die out.

London On London

London was once the centre of the British Empire, a vibrant prosperous city that reflected the British people's pride in their country and its capital city. Londoners were a breed apart and the 'Cockney Sparrers' of the old East End were arguably the most patriotic of them all.

Where are they now? What has happened to London?

Is it me?

Some mornings when I set out from home I look around at the other people on the street, on the train or the Tube or the bus and wonder if I am the only White man left in London. Or do others feel the same?

LONDON - THE WORLD'S MELTING-POT

Well its official, London is the most cosmopolitan city in western Europe, if not the Western hemisphere. According to a number of excited articles in the more liberal, or is it 'soft-Left' newspapers back in January, the figures thrown up by the 2001 Census tell a tale of diversity, multi-culturalism and vibrant ethnic mixes in Greater London. Or in my eyes a sorry story of takeover and colonisation by every race, creed and colour on the planet.

Official figures show that 30% of the population of London were born outside England. (that is at least 2.2 million people), the figure does not include those non-British who were born here to immigrant parents. Naturally the figure does not include illegal immigrants or the hidden population of asylum-seekers who are in hiding.

There are now more than 50 separate non-indigenous communities with populations of over 10,000 individuals. There are 300 different languages spoken in London, and just one of them is ENGLISH.

One liberal writer in the "Guardian" gushed enthusiastically that the borough of Southwark, especially the Peckham area, has become, "London's West African capital". In Southwark there are at least, at least, 15,000 natives of Sierra Leone.

Looking across the Greater London area, the numbers of non-Whites and non-British becomes even more alarming.

In Haringey there are between 30,000 and 40,000 Turkish speakers. There are over 35,000 Kurds in London. At least 6,000 possibly more than 7,000 Congolese; 75,000 to over 150,000 Somalis, the Home Office does not really know how many. More than 30,000 Koreans, 20,000 Japanese and over 15,000 Vietnamese. There are over 30,000 Afghans with its self-help organisation The Society of Afghans in the UK, based in Harrow. Not to be outdone South America gets a look in with at least 100,000 Latin Americans in London including as many as 50,000 Colombians.

The numbers make your head spin! Everyone knows about the obvious centres of non-British colonisation in London; places like Chinatown, like Golders Green, like Southall, or 'Bangla-town' around Brick Lane. But what about the other places, what about the districts and boroughs that these ethnic groups are spreading out into?

The 70,000 or so Bengalis in Tower Hamlets are branching out into New Cross and West Ham (Have to change its name 'Ham' is not halal and might upset the Muslims having to live in a place called Ham!)

Tottenham was once dominated by West Indians but now the Africans are moving in in greater numbers, at least 2,000 from the Republic of Congo alone. Somalis are settling in Brixton and Tower Hamlets in ever increasing numbers.

Some More Mind-Bending Numbers

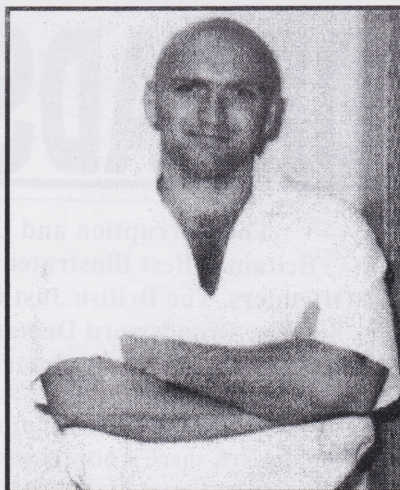

- The least White ward in Greater London is Southall Broadway where only 8.7% of the population is White.
- In the 2001 Census 87% of the UK population outside London was White. Inside London it was 59%.
- Nearly 4% of Londoners are of mixed race.
- Brent and Newham have the least numbers of European born residents.

Clapham Cocaine Gang get 24 Years

February 25th 2005, Southwark Crown Court :- three Colombian citizens of multi-racial London were jailed for 24 years for assorted drugs and firearms offences. These enterprising immigrants brought such examples of cultural diversity to the Falcons Estate as a stash of cocaine worth £2,240,000, 8mm semi-automatic pistols, 1,900 ecstasy tablets and 2 Kilos of cannabis. Another valuable contribution to London's ethnic richness.

Another Upstanding Member of the Ethnic Minority Community

Recently sentenced at Croydon Crown Court to 5 years for armed robbery was 19 years old Myer Grant. On September 30th 2004 Myer Grant ambushed a young couple at the McDonald's drive-through burger bar in London Road, Thornton Heath, and threatened to shoot their baby son unless they gave him their money. Myer Grant had only been out of Feltham YOI for 2 months prior to the burger bar robbery. Myer Grant at just 19 years old has a grand total of 31 previous convictions for robbery and driving offences.

London by Name

London by Nature

Once again Broadsword's 'street-editor' Ed London gets out into town to look at what is really going on in Britain's capital city..

 Breaking Broadsword's usual policy of anonymity - Ed says that if Broadsword's political and racial enemies want to scour the Greater London area looking for him, the best of luck to them, he is ready and waiting.

THE UNITED NATIONS ? NO! IT'S THE MET!

Can you believe it?

The Metropolitan Police is now boasting that it is recruiting foreign nationals to serve in the ranks of London's police force.

For 170 years foreign nationals were banned from serving in the British police force, but the previous Labour Home Secretary, the unlamented David Blunkett, lifted the ban in 2003 and so now the Met is more like a United Nations Protection Force than the police force protecting the nation's capital.

In a typical Labour Government gesture that reflects their obsession with 'cultural diversity'.

The Met now has 5,100 serving officers of all ranks who were born outside the UK.

A grand total of 37 different nationalities are now recognised in the Met.

Even the wording of the standard oath of allegiance has been changing to reflect the non-British make-up of the force.

Ernst Zundel Political Prisoner

Ernst Zundel, has finally lost his battle against the political courts of the Canadian Government and is to be deported to Germany, where he will face immediate arrest and imprisonment for his pro-National Socialist writings and his anti-Holocaust publications. The 65 year old, German born publisher and commercial artist has spent the past two years in a Toronto detention centre after being deported from the USA. Justice Pierre Blais heard most of the evidence against Zundel in secret which denied him a fair trial. His lawyer stated that he could, "play no meaningful role in the face of secret evidence."

Looking grey and worn by the stress of his treatment by both American and Canadian authorities, Ernst Zundel prepares himself for a further ordeal in Germany. Zundel has lived in Canada for over 40 years, where he built up a business in Toronto and ran his political publishing house 'Samizdat publications'. After years of court battles in Canada over his so-called "Holocaust-denial" publications, Zundel moved to Tennessee in the USA to marry authoress Ingrid Rimland. Despite his marriage to an American citizen he was deported back to Canada in 2003 and immediately locked away. The Canadian Jewish Congress has fought a series of legal challenges against Ernst Zundel since the 1980's, and are delighted at the deportation.

TRASH SOCIETY

Consumer Britain

In the space of four decades, Britain has become a materialistic consumer society, beguiled by the advertising industry and shaped by the Ad-men and PR gurus into the perfect customer base for the Trans-Atlantic multi-national companies that grow rich on our 'need' for their products. Nowhere has Britain's slavish devotion to fashion driven spending and the obsession with celebrity and designer status than in the world of fashion, art and culture. Driven by a media that is dominated by a cosmopolitan and metropolitan elite, common sense and traditional values are thrown out of the window in the pursuit of status and the desire to possess the ultimate status symbols.

Occasionally however, things do not always work out for the wealthy manipulators of fashion and taste. In May 2004, a massive warehouse fire in Leyton, East London, wiped out a huge collection of 'modern art'. The total financial loss was 'estimated' as a market value of between £40 and £50 million. The bulk of the material were the collected 'art treasures' of multi-millionaire Charles Saatchi. These so-called works of art included pieces by such icons of the abstract and modern art world as Tracey Emin, Damian Hirst, Sarah Lucas and Gavin Turk. When confronted with the news of the fire and the destruction of their 'unique' and 'irreplaceable' offerings to the world of culture, 'installation artist' Dinos Chapman is quoted as saying, "We will just make it again...It is only art."

The chaos represented by these modern 'master pieces' and the scandalously inflated prices they fetch reminded some members of the Broadsword team of events in the 1930's when the National Socialist government in Germany rounded up the splattered canvas daubings and distorted sculptures of Germany's Weimar era artists and in July 1937 put them on display at an Exhibition of Decadent Art in Berlin.

Interestingly those left-wing and Jewish German artists who fled Germany in the 1930's quickly established themselves in the USA and Britain, where their expensive and exclusive art styles not only flourished but received international acclaim. International acclaim that is from the similarly inclined fashion writers, opinion shapers and art critics of the West. Strange how so many of these overly influential individuals are all drawn from similar if not identical left-wing political backgrounds (Marxist/ Socialist/ Anarchist), are homosexual, and a surprising number are Jewish academics and intellectuals.

Little has changed then when one looks at the fashion gurus, designers, modern artists and self-styled avant garde painters and sculptures of today. These people hate the idea of traditional art and art concepts, they loathe anything that hints at patriotism and nationalism, since they themselves represent an international lifestyle, they are citizens of a 'Global Village'. They are literally, rootless cosmopolitans.

The world they foist upon Western culture is based on trash materialism geared up to a trash society at over inflated prices.

TRASH POLITICS— The Labour Party Are Caught Out Wrecking The 'Democratic' British Electoral System

In June 2004, four police officers raided a warehouse on a Birmingham industrial estate, inside the building were several Asian men busy sorting through hundreds of official local election postal ballot papers. The busy men were all directly involved in the biggest election fraud case to come before the British courts in decades, if not a hundred years. Of those fraudsters, all were linked to the Labour Party in Birmingham, three of those caught in the warehouse were Labour candidates for the Aston ward.

Elections Commissioner Judge Richard Mawrey, QC, announced at the official investigation in April 2005 that, the fraud was part of "a Birmingham wide campaign by the Labour Party to try, by the use of the postal votes, to counter the adverse effects of the Iraq war on its electoral fortunes."

It is no coincidence that these illegal practices were centred on those district wards where Asian voters make up the majority of the population, the tactics used by the Labour party activists are all standard fare in the elections of South Asia and the Middle East; bribery, mass theft of voting papers, forged signatures, multiple voting by single persons. Not only have the Asian settlers introduced their languages, religions, music and cuisine to Britain, but they have also enriched us with their political practices. Six Labour Party councillors were specifically named in the investigation - Mohammed Islam, Muhammed Afzal, Muhammed Kazi, Shah Jahan, Shafaq Ahmed, and Ayaz Khan. When Muhammed Afzal was questioned by the judge at the enquiry, the Elections Commissioner declared that Afzal had "lied like a trooper" about his involvement in the illegal acts.

Given the scale of the vote fraud, and the numbers of people involved, from local Labour Party councillors and candidates, local Labour Party election workers, corrupt postal workers (who stole ballot papers by the sack full from Royal Mail depots), to the gangs of children who were paid to steal ballot papers from letter boxes, the vote rigging operation must have been an open secret in the West Midlands Labour Party and must have been sanctioned and a fairly high level.

British Nationalists have long complained that electoral chicanery has deprived them of votes and that many ballots cast for Nationalist candidates are mysteriously 'lost' or miscounted. British Movement has always contended that the British electoral system is deliberately rigged against so-called 'Far-Right' candidates, and is one reason why BM has avoided taking part in elections since the early 1980's.

In the Birmingham case the Labour Party was caught red-handed rigging the voting system, but in how many other areas in the 2004 local and European elections did the hand of the Labour Party 'democratically' adjust the vote?

THE RED ROOTS OF NEW LABOUR

After the electoral disasters of the 1980's and early 1990's the Labour Party underwent a major change in style and strategy, the overt Socialism and Trade Unionism of 'Old Labour' was dropped in favour of a new, stylised 'metropolitan' brand of 'social-democracy' built around public school educated professionals. The 'apparatchiks' of 'New Labour' were all drawn from the ranks of the Left-wing student activists of the 1960's and 1970's. Important Labour Ministers like Foreign Secretary Jack Straw were hard core members of the revolutionary Left; Minister Peter Hain was an anti-apartheid campaigner; and former Home Secretary David Blunkett once ran Sheffield City Council as part of the so-called "Peoples' Republic of South Yorkshire" flying the Red Flag over the Town Hall.

Labour was remodelled by Peter Mandelson and Tony Blair. The Labour Party dropped the old working-class struggles and seized on the equality obsessions of the middle-classes and the champagne socialists of Hampstead and Islington. Now after two terms in government under Prime Minister Tony Blair it is clear that the ruling elite of New Labour did not turn their backs on their 'Red' roots, but have introduced a Far-Left political agenda by stealth. Under New Labour's control Britain now has a series of laws and controls more in keeping with a Marxist state than at any time in the past. Millions of pounds of tax revenue has been spent on building a massive government bureaucracy, at both national and local levels.

Un-elected officials hold high office, minority rights and racial equality is compulsory, and the Marxist-Leninist tools of state control, ID cards and house arrest are soon to be introduced.

Peter Mandelson, ex-Labour Minister, European Commissioner, the architect of New Labour as he is today and below marching in support of International Socialist solidarity as a Left-wing delegate to Marxist Cuba in the summer of 1978.

Can you believe it? Here on the platform with other Marxist delegates at the World Festival of Youth and Students in Havana, Cuba, in 1977 is none other than Charles Rodway Clarke, currently a Labour MP and Home Secretary.

Broadsword wonders if Special Branch and MI5 still keep a file on this former Marxist radical now that he is their boss. Or perhaps now Charlie Clarke is in the position to create a British version of the old East-German Stasi, the KGB or even Beria's NKVD.

Another favourite of Tony Blair and a key player in London politics is Trevor Phillips now the Chairman of the Commission for Racial Equality and the effective boss of Britain's Race Relations industry.

Here hidden by his trendy 'lefty-beard' and sunglasses, the radical young Trevor Phillips marches through the streets of Cuba alongside Peter Mandelson in the summer of 1978.

There too was the young Paul Boateng, currently a chief secretary at the Treasury and Arthur Scargill the former Miners' leader.

Fiona Mactaggart- Home Office Minister and former National Secretary of the National Union of Students. She is one of the wealthiest politicians in the Labour Party, a millionaire and a committed Blairite, she is the Labour MP for Slough. Another former 'champagne-socialist' as part of New Labour's ruling elite. The daughter of the late Sir Ian Mactaggart, she too was a delegate to Cuba in July 1978.

Our Ancestors

OUR ANCESTORS :- The Call of Ancient Blood.

What is it that ties the British people to the soil of their native lands?

What is it that ties the Aryan European people to the soil of their lands?

What is it about the Caucasian race that ties it to the lands of Europe?

The answer lies within the blood, the reality of race is far more than just the colour of a person's skin (despite what the Marxists and the liberals would have us believe), racial differences are very real and are interwoven in the basic DNA of every human being.

Over millennia the Aryan peoples have lived and died in their European homeland, from the Caucasus Mountains to the western Atlantic shores, from the Mediterranean to the Arctic Circle and the Barents Sea.

The seas have risen and fallen, eventually rising to cut the British Isles and Ireland off from the European mainland, but the basic pattern of their bloodlines remained the same, different tribal groups, regional differences, varying languages, but all the same Aryan root stock.

As our peoples have lived, so have they died, their bones and ashes have returned to the soil that they lived and walked on, their bones and ashes fed the ground they farmed and in turn they lived off the crops and livestock that was nourished by the ashes and bones of their fore bearers.

That is the cycle of life, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, and out of the dust grows the corn to feed the future generations. Thus are a people tied to the land of their ancestors and it through this centuries old link of life and death, kinship and family that the British are tied to their ancestral homeland, long years of living on the same ground that their ancestors worked and farmed, fought and defended, watered with their sweat, bought with their blood, and finally nurtured with their bones. What greater claim can a people have to the land of their people than this kind of connection?

That is why our Folk have always honoured their homeland, felt bound to it root and branch by right of Ancestry, a heritage earned by the work and sacrifice of countless generations. The blood within the veins of all the Aryan peoples of Europe marks them out as different from the other races of the Earth. The blood within their veins carries the DNA of those who came before them, a lineage tying them to their homeland by unbroken family lines.

Those of non-British, non-European, non-Aryan blood cannot share this connection with our homeland. They cannot claim the ties of ancestry and heritage that we have within our blood and bones.

This connection is readily identified in National Socialist ideology as Blood and Soil, recognising the cycle of life and the chain of life and death that has nurtured the land and nurtured the people for many centuries passed.

When the Welshman looks to the peaks of Snowdonia or the Brecons, when the Scotsman looks to the Highlands or the Hebrides, they feel the line within their blood that binds them to their land and Folk. Across England, the Downs, the Dales, the Pennines, Exmoor, the Wolds, the Cheviots, the Fen lands, all hold something that lifts the Folk memory within our people. Countless generations have left Scotland and Ireland for the New World and Australasia, but still decades and generations later, they still feel the pull of their ancestors, drawing them back to Alba or Hibernia, the call of their blood.

So too for our kindred in mainland Europe, centuries of conflict and political tinkering with borders cannot eradicate their identification with their homeland. Call it a Motherland, or Fatherland, Nordic, Germanic, Latin or Slav, still the chains of blood and soil binds them to the land of their fore-fathers.

We as Aryan people hold an eternal debt to our fore-fathers who worked and defended our native lands. We must honour their memory and never forget that debt, we must retain our links with the land that gave us life as a Nation and never betray our roots or the call of our ancient blood. As White men and women it is our most precious possession.

Arminius.

BLOOD & SOIL

REVIVING THE RITES OF OUR ANCESTORS

A RETURN TO HEATHEN TIMES

How Far Should We Go In Reviving the Rites and Festivals of Our Heathen Ancestors?

The picture produced above to illustrate this point was taken in Germany in the 1930's at the re-creation of an Iron Age celebration. The costumes and artefacts were all faithfully reproduced from archaeological finds and dramatically recapture the craftsmanship and atmosphere of pre-Christian Europe. But is it necessary to go so far in regaining our lost heritage?

There is no doubt that the revival of these ancient Aryan rites and festivals offers the White British and White Europeans a significant opportunity to reclaim their lost traditions and cultural roots. There is a highly spiritual and ideological theme to these activities which makes their recreation a vital component of our racial re-awakening and these are occasions which cannot be appropriated by the immigrants and non-whites because they cannot identify with or share in the very special nature of these events. These ceremonies are a return to our racial roots, they honour the belief systems of our ancestors and our Folk, not some cosmopolitan melting point of many faiths.

If our people are to wake up and seek out a national renaissance then we must revive such festivals in all their glory.

Blood & Biology

The Ideological Roots of 21st Century National Socialism

The Ideological Roots of Modern National Socialism Are to be Found in the Principles and Theories Laid Down in the Germanic-SS in the 1940's.

The Germanic-SS Developed the Concept of a Pan-European National Socialist Movement Which Embraced All European Nations. Those Ideals Spread Beyond 1945 and Evolved Into the Form of National Socialism Advocated by British Movement Today.

Throughout the post-1945 period there have been many ideological routes for National Socialist groups and movements to take, often coloured by their own particular national situation or geographical location. In 1960's America, the writings of George Lincoln Rockwell took a stance geared to the American political and economic climate of the day. His books White Power and This Time the World set out his interpretation of how National Socialism should guide White Revolution. In Europe and Britain the writings of Savitri Devi and Colin Jordan took a different stance yet still drew heavily on the principals of Mein Kampf and the other leading ideological works of the Third Reich.

British Movement was founded in the Summer of 1968 by Colin Jordan and has followed on the general political lines originally set out by Arnold Leese and developed by Colin Jordan during the 1950's and 1960's.

Throughout the 1970's and 1980's British Movement followed a blend of

"The SS is in accordance with immutable laws as a National Socialist Order of men of Nordic stamp and as the oath bound community of their clans."

Arnold Leese and Colin Jordan's political theories interwoven with a raw adaptation of NS street politics and direct action taken from the SA

"We would wish to be, not only the men who fought of old, but the forebears of later generations essential to ensure the eternal existence of the Germanic people."

of 1930's Germany.

In the 1990's British Movement looked deeper into the different strands of National Socialist ideology and focussed on the racial and folk community principals of the SS.

SS - Hauptsturmführer Wim Heubel

A Dutch SS officer who embodied the European SS ideal.

A dedicated National Socialist committed to the ideology of Blood and Soil. The guiding principle of an Aryan brotherhood of Nations, built on strong National communities recognising their inherent differences of language and customs but sharing a deeper bond of political ideology and racial kinship.

"We are going to create the chance for the Germanic people and for Europe as a whole, directed by the Germanic people, to build an Order which will, for generations, be able to fight victoriously against all Asiatic aggression. Woe to us if the Germanic people cannot win this battle. It will be the end of beauty, of culture and of creative thought on this earth. We struggle for the future only so that we can maintain the heritage of our most noble ancestors. I consider it necessary for the life of our people to teach all this to our grandsons, so that they may understand the difficulties of their ancestors and willingly enter into the SS way of life.

Heinrich Himmler

This article is the first in a series which will explore the development of modern British National Socialism and its roots in the pan-Europeanism of the Germanic-SS. Especially the concepts of Blood & Soil, a Folk Community and racial heritage.

A FRIEND IN THE NORTH -SCOTTISH NEWS & PERSPECTIVES

The first Scottish Race murder trial has concluded with Asian thug Dannish Zahid getting 20 years and co-defendant Zahid Mohammed getting a 5 year holiday for their roles in the horrific murder of 15 year old Kriss Donald. The Muslim gangsters butchered the White youth in accordance with the laws of Islamic ritual slaughter, draining the body of blood before attempting to destroy it through burning. For reasons of sensitivity I will not go into the nature of pre-death injuries inflicted on Kriss.

The Strathclyde police also allowed suspects to flee to Pakistan and as of today they remain at liberty. However the "goys in blue" were more alert to the possibility that "racists" may attend the trial for their own "evil ends". This writer was in fact denied access to the court, a public building, but this was speedily resolved by an official complaint. The gutter press, through an informant, headlined "Nazi kicked out of court" with a totally false and malicious story of this having been at the Donald family's request and my presence was in itself malicious.

Having been the victim of the vermin of journalism before, and having tried registering a complain with the so-called Press Complaints Commission (might as well have sent it to Woburn House!); I decided to ring the News of the World journalist Graham McKendry in a more direct appeal to his personal honesty and integrity. This isn't Mr McKendry's first "hatchet job" on this correspondent with his "right wing insider" source. On the first this was one of two people, by the time the case was in court, this had been reduced to one, "ex" investigative reporter and "Neo-Nazi" leader, Bob Johnston, aka Baron Bob Munchausen. Bob, a shy and retiring man, has to date avoided publicity, however my personal feeling is that his modesty is undeserving and it is time to give the Rutherglen Reichfuhrer due recognition. Unfortunately I am an unemployed White worker and unable to contribute to this particular pensioner's account, nonetheless, well done Bob!

On the political front I was delighted to note the Scots Nationalists signed up their ten thousandth member, an Asian lassie! But quite at home with other SNP notables of distinctly non-Scottish origin, such as Alex Salmond, not a man given to a bacon bap! Further to the left, although a man of many positions, workers champion and founder of the "Scottish" Socialist Party, Tommy Sherridan has stood down as Party leader following liaisons with a "working girl"! Brings a new relevance to the term "political prostitute"!

While the authorities and media seem to have little difficulty with marches in support of Irish terrorism, left-wing extremism or fanatical Islam, when the National Front announced their intention to hold a St Andrew's Day march all hell broke loose with the Organiser, Dave McDonald the victim of a virulent vendetta by the Daily Record and other sections of the alien controlled media. Aberdeen council sought legal advice on how they could ban the march without "violating the human rights of the NF". Mr McDonald defied the media's hate, attended the council meeting, braving an "anti-fascist" demo of foreigners, freaks and faggots along with the waiting cameras to be informed by the democrats that the parade was banned. Perhaps the Front should have stated that their marchers would be clad either in turbans or berets complete with designer shades!

Finally, I return to more quite literal, perversions of justice in Scottish courts where a deputy head master and a media graduate appeared on child porn charges. In the latter case a defending solicitor described the offence as a "victimless crime" with the court lashing out with a 240 hour Community Service Order! It seems strange, even perverse that those with paedophilic interests tend to be professionals whilst ordinary folk are unable to access sites relevant to the existence of our people and a future for White Children!

UNITY By M.G. - POW ...USA

I hear this word or cliché all the time, used with completely no meaning behind it. As I have come to learn, it's a joke amongst the Movement that I grew up in, and gave my physical body for. For the ZOG dogs who put my body behind these walls can never take my mind!

It is true that there are a large number of youths who have like-minded ideas, but we still have no unity at all. The dictionary definition of Unity is a "singleness or constancy of purpose or action, a state of being one". We are not single-minded going for one purpose. We have become self-oriented instead of race-oriented. Our Movement has become a popularity contest like we are all in high school, the ego is so big it's sickening! Being a proud, unified force has taken the back burner to egoism, instead of National Socialism. As I have written many times before, 'we can all be leaders'. We need real leaders like Bob Matthews, Ian Stuart, Lincoln Rockwell etc. All of them kept one purpose in mind and did not show a lack of respect to any group. This is the biggest problem we have right now. If an activist is an Odinist, the Creators don't usually like them. If he is a Creator, the Identity people wont work with him. What has happened to "your uniform is your skin?" Not "your uniform is your religion". Have we not learned throughout history that religious wars have always divided our race? Now it divides our movement. So let's not make unity a cliché anymore and start respecting that each member of our Movement may hold different beliefs, yet we are all still brothers and sisters of our Aryan Race. So remember that our race comes first, not religious inclination. So if we lose this war for lack of unity, it will be due to our inability to put aside our differences. How sad it would be if our race became extinct because of lack of respect amongst fellow kinsmen and kinswoman. M.G. PPOW.

RADICAL OPINION

British Movement

NS. Greetings to you and all of the BM. Hope this letter finds you guys in the best of Aryan health and spirits. Well first off let me introduce myself. My name is Aaron. I'm a National Socialist out of Long Beach California. As you can see I'm currently in one of ZOGs finest hotels, prison. I was wondering, if by chance, if you guys are printing any literature, if you can send me some? I'd appreciate anything. I had the privilege of reading one of your booklets "Blood & Soil" Issue 2, which I enjoyed reading. Anyhow I do hope to hear from you, keep up the struggle—defeat never, victory forever.

"Only common great deeds for the idea of a Fatherland will hold a nation together....social selfishness must yield...The individual must forget himself and feel part of the whole. He must realise how insignificant his life is compared with the whole"

DEATH OF A GANGSTER

Manchester Hard Man, IRA Supporter, Anti-Fascist and Drug Dealer Broadsword Does Not Lament the Passing of 'Dessie' Noonan

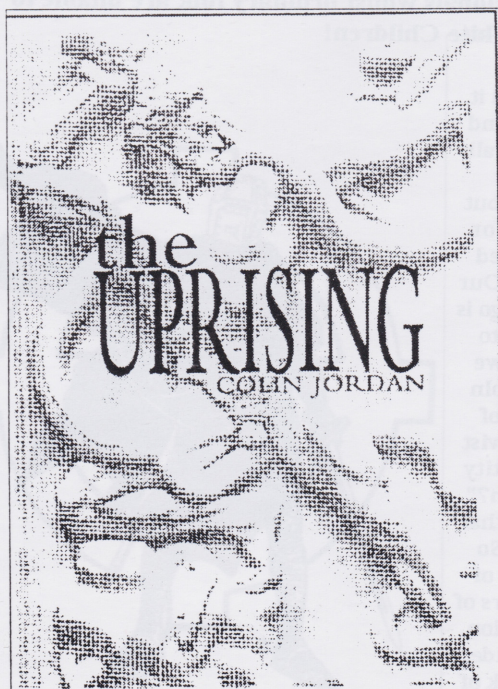

March 2005 and the violent life and criminal career of Desmond 'Dessie' Noonan was brought to an abrupt end when his dead body was dumped on the streets of the Chorlton district of Manchester. The 46 year old gangster had always thought himself untouchable, even after the death of his brother Damian in 2003. Despite his fearsome reputation and that of his brothers, Dessie Noonan was stabbed to death by members of a rival drug gang. Quoting Noonan's own boasts in the book No Retreat, the former Red Action thug Dave Hann recalls, Noonan threatening a former BNP member in south Manchester, and telling him, "There's one thing that not many people know about me, and that's the fact that I'm anti-fascist to the core."

What Noonan might have also said was that he was born into a large Manchester Irish family with strong Republican and IRA connections. Dessie Noonan was known to attend Irish Republican fund raising events and was connected to the Manchester IRA support network. The so-called "Manchester Martyrs" parade which was held in the city as a tribute to an early group of Irish Republicans executed in Manchester in 1867, was known to have Noonan's backing.

Red Action were always pleased to have the muscle of the Noonan's to back up their violent campaigns in the Manchester area, but were less keen to advertise the fact that the Noonan's were a crime family directly involved in the drugs scene, armed robbery and murder. In 1992 Dessie Noonan and his brother Derek were twice tried for the murder of drug dealer Tony Johnson, but were finally acquitted. The police were unable to prove their case and knew that Noonan and his gang were threatening witnesses, Dessie having previously served a prison sentence for threatening to kill police officers who were testifying against him in an armed robbery trial.

Desmond 'Dessie' Noonan, drug dealer, armed robber, IRA supporter, anti-fascist and the man who boasted of "having more guns than the police" will not be missed.

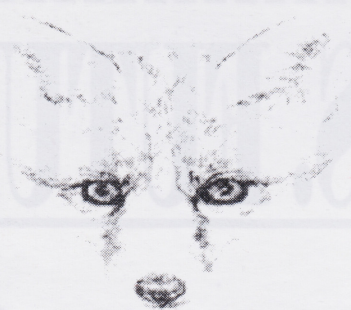

Book ReviewUPRISING By Colin Jordan.

UPRISING - Is the latest work by the veteran British National Socialist and founder of British Movement, Colin Jordan. Unlike the majority of Mr Jordan's previous publications, this time he has presented the reader with a work of fiction, a story of political revolution set in the Britain of a future decade. Building on the ideas set out in his earlier work. Merrie England 2000, the central focus of The Uprising is a White Nationalist guerrilla force called the BFF, the British Freedom Fighters. The BFF set out to overthrow the corrupt political establishment by a campaign of co-ordinated military actions, assassinations, kidnappings, ambushes etc. Their targets include both politicians and enemies on the opposite political spectrum, together with other social undesirables. There is no doubt a strong element of wishful thinking within the story and the reader cannot help but identify certain thinly disguised characters from real life amongst those on whom the BFF takes revenge. Contrary to what some individuals have claimed, Mr Jordan has not written a British version of the Turner Diaries in fact he has not actually read the Turner Diaries. However this book is intended to be more than just escapism or entertainment it carries a number of very real political and ideological messages within the text. Whilst Broadsword does not believe that the time has yet arrived for British Nationalists and National Socialists to take up arms against the state. Doubtlessly there are those individuals who would wish to do so, and equally there are those within the Security Services who wish we would, thereby providing the golden opportunity to destroy the 'Far-Right' once and for all. No doubt The Uprising will soon be classified as 'dangerous' and a book to be banned. Broadsword believes that it is a book worth reading and our readers should draw their own conclusions on its story, but heed its central message that to triumph requires sacrifices and the starting point of any revolution is to revolutionise yourself as an individual.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE....

That is the question we must all ask ourselves at some point or other, whether we should be or should not be National Socialists.

To be true National Socialists we must turn our backs on the rest of society and how it operates, and become true to the spirit of what we believe, which is to be pure in heart and dedicated first and foremost to our own Folk and their welfare.

The dictate of modern society is that we should become greedy, and that our worth is to be measured by what material things we possess or have around us. To gain those things has become easy. The enemy brainwashes us into believing that we should look or live a certain way to be acceptable, and it gives us easy opportunity to gain the status it dictates by the use of loans and credit cards. The more you earn, the more debt it will allow you, therefore, the more you earn, the more it sees opportunity for profit.

Take a look at your home. Take a look at your finances. How much of your furniture is really yours? How much of your life is really yours? How much of your income do you bring home to your family? How much of it do you earn for the enemy? Who do you really work for?

To be a National Socialist is to break free of the bonds that the enemy forges for all those it can exploit. We all like to have life's little luxuries, but those luxuries become burdens when they are acquired by getting into debt. Try to live a more simple life, one that allows you to live within your means. Get in touch with fellow N.S. people around you and try to work out schemes for helping each other out, sharing skills or returning favours. A National Socialist society can never be built without commitment, and as National Socialists your commitment should be to one another. Individualism is a popular concept these days, and as National Socialists we must break this down. "I'm alright Jack" never built a nation, and one man standing alone cannot defeat an army no matter how hard he tries. Only by learning to stand together can we be strong, and that attitude must be adopted by each and every true National Socialist, because to be a National Socialist is not a fashion or hobby, it is a way of life, and one that can bind us strongly in hearts and minds and in the spirit of our ancestry. Every moment of every waking hour there is a battle to be won, and that battle is against an enemy who wins by stealth, so we as National Socialists, must be twice as clever as our enemy by outwitting him at every turn.

Learn to be vigilant in your every day living and watch for him constantly, because when he sees you tiring he will strike without mercy, and you will find that you have nothing, because you own nothing. So when you ask yourself the question am I or am I not a true National Socialist, answer yourself in honesty, and if there are areas of your life that can be changed for the better to make them more suited to our ideology, then do it, and do it today because tomorrow may be too late.
The Rose.

*We shall be happy to hear from anyone who has suffered problems relating to debt or the dishonesty of banks or loan agencies, especially those who would be prepared to share their experiences in these pages and which would allow our readers to understand a little more of the heartbreak that can be caused by these increasing issues. Please write to us at the Broadsword address.

A letter to Vixens:

I've just finished reading Issue 28 of Broadsword and am sorely lamenting missing the BM Family Day! I am a 30 year old woman raising three wonderful Aryan children, with the help of my tremendous Aryan Warrior, and am doing my best to live the 14 words and raise my children accordingly. I'd be eternally grateful for any words of wisdom or support BMWD Vixens may care to share! We're a rare breed, I know no other woman who shares my views so it would be nice to have others to share my ideas with, other National Socialists.

BUILDING AN N.S. FUTURE

BUILDING A NATIONAL SOCIALIST FUTURE

The creation of a mass movement is not the present priority of British Movement, that will come later. Past experience has shown BM that to launch into building a mass organisation from the start is fraught with problems and creates more difficulties as momentum builds up. In the late 1970's the rapid growth of BM saw an influx of members and supporters but brought in a fair number of people who were a liability rather than assets. At that time the Movement lacked sufficient structure and key personnel to properly process and organise those people it recruited.

Times have changed, the nature of political activity has changed and there has been an increased sophistication in 'what the public want'. In terms of literature alone, the quality of leaflets, stickers and publications which were distributed in 1979 and 1980 would not pass muster today in terms of quality and production. Unfortunately the production of modern, quality propaganda is expensive and the days of doing everything on the cheap are over.

So the first thing BM has to build is its foundations, physical and financial - both take time and commitment. Hence BM's Project 2001 and Project 2005.

FAMILY BOOK

The 'British Movement Family Book' Is intended as a building block in the foundations of an alternative British National Socialist Folk Community. This simple publication offers a modern guideline to ancient customs and celebrations set in a British NS framework. Embrace the Past, and build the Future.

The British Movement Family Book is based on the original 1936 publication the "SS Family Book" and is the first in a series of booklets aimed at providing the modern National Socialist with a framework around which to build a British National Socialist lifestyle. What BM members and supporters have said about the 'British Movement Family Book'.

"I think it is essential that our Movement has a book that will guide our folk in the correct racial direction, just as Mein Kampf did for Germany.

Many of our people need to be woken up to the problems we face ahead and shown the way forward. Many do not see or feel the need to look ahead and move forward simply because there is not a good book to give them reason and guidance. One of our biggest problems is that many of us do not know what it is to be an Aryan person and this has to be rectified along with the promotion of good NS racial morals.

I think we need an 'Aryan Folk Book' that has role models and SS Ideology to motivate and inspire us, and let us hope that one day there will be one forth coming."

Well, the 'BM Family Book' does not claim to be Mein Kampf but we feel that it is a step towards a future publication of a British 'Aryan Folk Book.'

The BM Family Book is a 20 page A4 publication which outlines the most important festivals for a British 'Folk Calendar' and is the first step towards an NS Folk Community. Copies of the BM Family Book are available from Broadword price £3.00 inc. p&p Please make cheques or postal orders payable to Broadword.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

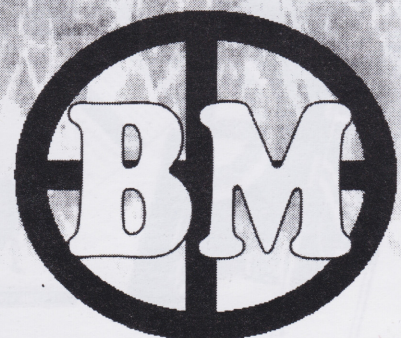

Dear Broadsword: A few thoughts on 'ZOG' definitions of racist extremists:

- Repatriation
 - Acting to preserve one's culture
 - High numbers of blacks & Asians stopped by police, and imprisoned
 - Anyone who is not a 'ZOG' apologist
 - Anti-Democratic
- But what about -
- Marcus Garvey, past leader of the black Rastafarians who wanted all blacks repatriating to Africa with Ethiopia as their spiritual homeland?
 - Buddhist & Muslim Asian countries which act to conserve their cultures?
 - High numbers of blacks & Asians involved in drugs, prostitution and other criminal activities?
 - Anyone who is not 'politically correct' is automatically labelled an 'extremist' - but what is wrong with being a patriot as long as I stay within the current laws?
 - Britain has been a 'democracy' in the modern sense for less than 100 years. (Adolf Hitler was democratically elected in 1933) Democracy does not work—our government ignores public opinion on hanging, abortion and homosexuality. (Oscar Wilde was prosecuted and imprisoned for homosexual acts; these laws should still be in force)
- A.M. Hants.

Dear All at BM HQ,
Things are a bit tough going up here just now. The apathy of people even within the Nationalist movement is pretty bad just now. Everyday Glasgow seems to fill up with more and more immigrants. The racial makeup of the city is unrecognisable from a few years ago. It can only get worse, as it is the policy of the so-called Scottish Government to actively encourage immigration into Scotland.
Racial regards
D. C. Scotland.

Dear Broadsword,
Why was there so much fuss being made about the racist chanting heard at the Spain v England friendly international football match played in Madrid on 17th November 2004?
The answer is simple: Stop the English Football Association selecting and playing Black players in the English National team and give the country a White English team to be proud of....
Then the chanting will stop.

Dear BM,
A friend told me that you had a new website so I checked it out and it was pretty good. Ulster is now being flooded by ws just like the rest of the UK. For 30 years we've escaped the worst of it, but now they're coming in by the plane load.
For Race & Nation. Eddie.

WILL YOU STAND WITH ME?
My ancestors' Gods are my commanding officers!
The 14 Words are my code of conduct
BLOOD, SOIL, HONOUR, FOLK AND FAITH are my weapons of warfare
I have thousands of years of trained experience,
Tried by adversity and tested by fire
I am a volunteer in the movement and I am enlisted for eternity
I will either retire in victory at Ragnarok or die:
But I will not get out, sell out, be talked out or pushed out
I am faithful, reliable, capable and dependable
If my Race needs me, I am there!
If the movement needs me to teach children, work with youth, or sit and learn, call me, because I am there.
No one has to remind me, write me, visit me, entice me or lure me
I am in place, saluting my ancestors, obeying the 14 Words, praising my Race and building a New Dawn.
When my Race called me into this movement I had nothing
If I end up with nothing, I still break even.
I will win! My Gods will supply all my needs!
I am more than a conqueror, I will always triumph
People cannot disillusion me, Battles cannot beat me.
Money cannot buy me. Governments cannot silence me.
And Hell cannot handle me. I am an Aryan!
Even death cannot destroy me, For when my ancestors' Gods call me from this battlefield, I will be one of the Einherjar,
And I will come back to rule this world.
I am an Aryan warrior and I will be marching, claiming Victory!
I will not give up, I will not turn around!
I am an Aryan, marching Vahalla bound!
Here I stand!
WILL YOU STAND WITH ME?

OBITUARY

Pastor Richard Butler
Born February 23rd 1918
Died September 8th 2004

Richard Gernt Butler, founder and driving force behind the Aryan Nations organisation in the USA died aged 86 in September 2004 after a long battle with ill-health. Despite his infirmity and the loss of his Hayden Lake compound he continued to fight the System and lead his organisation from the front, his last public activity took place in the town of Coeur d'Alene where Pastor Butler staged a final demonstration as part of his annual Aryan World Congress. Together with some 40 or so supporters he staged an anti-Zionist demonstration culminating in the dragging of the Israeli flag through the dirt, tied to the rear of a slowly driven truck.

A former aviation engineer for the American Lockheed company and a long standing member of the Christian Identity movement, Richard Butler first became racially aware while serving in India and the Pacific in the Second World War serving aircraft for the Royal Indian Air Force and the US Army Air Corps. Intrigued by the Hindu caste system he turned his attention to racial politics. He was once quoted as stating, "We, the White race, were losing the war. Hitler had the right idea. He was the only one who stood up to fight for the life of our race."

Across the 1950's and 1960's Richard Butler was active in various Christian Identity organisations and churches including the Christian Defence League and the Posse Comitatus.

Taking early retirement in 1974 together with his wife Betty he left California to set up his base in northern Idaho. Purchasing a 20 acre site at Hayden Lake, constructing a compound around a series of buildings and a small church. Here he founded his Church of Jesus Christ Christian and the headquarters of his new political organisation Aryan Nations. For over 30 years Richard Butler acted as an international focus for American White supremacist and pro-NS groups and as a mailing centre for the many branches of the American White Power network. From 1981 onwards his compound saw an annual Aryan Congress where hundreds of US, Canadian and European delegates would gather to represent dozens of organisations and political standpoints on the so-called "Far-Right". Repeatedly hauled before the US Courts on a variety of charges, he finally lost his base in 2000 when the Southern Poverty Law Centre won its campaign to bankrupt him and he was faced with a $6.3 million law suit. As a deliberate insult to Aryan Nations the Hayden Lake site was bought up by a Massachusetts based Civil Rights organisation. This blow did not stop Richard Butler and he continued to operate in the Hayden Lake area until his death.

IT'S THAT BOOK AGAIN!

Sales of Mein Kampf Make it a Best-Seller in Turkey. In the first few months of 2005 more than 100,000 copies of a new Turkish edition of Mein Kampf have been sold in Turkey.

Some political observers have blamed the popularity of Mein Kampf on a rising tide of nationalism and anti-American feeling in Turkey in the wake of the invasion of Iraq and the close relationship between Israel and the USA. Some Turks fear that their culture and traditions will suffer when Turkey joins the European Union and now look towards a Nationalist solution.
